OUR APPROACH

This school experience is delivered by our instructors with pastoral support from school staff. In practice this means that our instructors will lead your adventure sessions, looking after the group's safety and teaching them new skills. The teacher's role is to support their group – by letting us take the lead, school staff are able to get to know their pupils and provide individual help where needed. There is no need for school staff to have outdoors skills themselves – just a willingness to get involved with the learning process. We believe this co-delivery is an essential part of the residential experience. It helps to build bonds between pupils and school staff, and lets teachers learn more about their pupils to help them back in the school environment.

We've strived to achieve a balance between engaging pupils in challenging new adventures and providing a comfortable learning environment. For example, our activities are designed to enable a challenge by choice approach, allowing pupils to be stretched but not overwhelmed by tasks. We know it's important to get the basics right too, which is why this school experience includes full catering and a choice of indoor accommodation or a comfortable tented village as a base for your stay.

Exact activities vary by location, please contact your chosen centre for more details. Our minimum group size for this school experience is 20. If you've got a smaller group, please do get in touch and we'll do our best to accommodate you.
