

Dorothy Hughes Pack Holiday Centre/Lodge

Gilwell Park

About the building

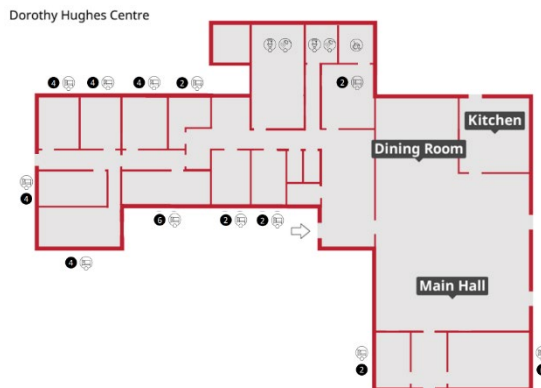

Dorothy Hughes is a traditional wooden lodge sleeping up to 42 people. The building has two six-bed dorms, five four-bed dorms, and five twin-bed rooms. One twin room in the building is accessible, with an accessible washroom. There is a shared bathroom with toilets, sinks and showers and an additional separate leader bathroom with toilet, sink and shower.

Beds are provided mattress-only, so make sure you bring a sleeping bag and pillow.

The building has a commercial kitchen with everything you need to cater for a group of 42 people.

There's a large hall for dining or with tables and chairs to seat your group. The hall is equipped with a screen, projector and AV system for any activities or just watching a film.

There's a foyer space with sofas for leaders to relax in the evening; and an area for muddy boots and wet coats.
