

Patrol Cabins

Gilwell Park

About the cabins

We have two Patrol Cabins for smaller group stays, situated on the edge of Woodlands camping field. They're great for groups that want a mix of camping and basic bunk accommodation. Each Patrol Cabin sleeps eight people across two rooms, for a total of 16 beds across both cabins.

Each cabin can be booked separately or are just next door to each other for groups who'd like to use both.

The cabins are basic in style, with bunk beds, electric lighting, power sockets and a wall heater. Beds are provided mattress-only, so make sure you bring a sleeping bag and pillow.

There's a small kitchen hut in between the cabins, which includes a fridge, freezer and two induction hobs. This is only a small space, so isn't suitable for dining. The kitchen hut is shared by both cabins and between the cabins there's an outdoor seating/dining space of picnic benches.

The closest toilet block is Woodlands (just 50m away), with separate gendered and over/under 18 toilets and showers. There are also two accessible and all-gender wet rooms with toilets and showers, access to drinking water and washing up sinks.
